Ahoy, style star!
"The nautical
trend never goes out of style,"
says stylist Lindsy
Lane. Taylor Swift
keeps her striped
suit from looking costumey by letting it be her focal piece and anchoring it with
timeless tortoiseshell shades.

Tribal

From the Bahamas
to the Pacific Coast,
the tribal look
works great around the globe! "Be sure
to keep this trend
the highlight of your outfit," says
Lane. Beyoncé's
earthy cover-up and
gold jewelry stand out against a neutral bikini.

Woven canvas on the back repels sand!

SANDS OFF!

This may very well be the perfect beach towel: It's large (40" x 70"), plush yet quick drying (it's made of organic combed cotton), and, best of all, features a clever woven canvas backing that repels sand. Available in a range of sophisticated stripe designs, these towels guarantee you'll be sitting pretty—not sandy. (Kassatex, $50 each; cassadecor.com)

TREND ALERT

Natural Selection

The market tote is my favorite summer bag shape. Not only can you throw everything in it, I love that it looks like something you picked up on an exotic vacation.

BURNING QUESTION

POST-OP PRETTY

Q Are there any stylish mastectomy suits out there?

A. Yes! I really love these bathing suits. Created by Veronica Brett, who had a bilateral mastectomy with reconstruction, the collection features pieces designed to make a woman feel beautiful and sensual. The suits feature supportive under-bust elastics and pockets for breast forms, as well as stylish details like this number's lace-up front.

QUEEN LATIFAH What's in your BEACH BAG?

Her new CBS daytime talk show has Emmy- and Oscar-nominated QUEEN LATIFAH exploring celebrity interviews, human interest stories, comedy, and music. Her beach time, though, is reserved for letting loose. “I wear swimsuits that let me be active—jumping off boats, jet skiing,” she says. She plays on shores from her SoCal home to vacation spots in Italy, while sporting stylish looks picked up from past trips: “I found a beach bag at a little shop in Greece that I love!”
